Jewish Family and Children’s Services of Southern Arizona

Honoring Our Pioneer Families, Past Board Presidents and 75 Years of Service in the Community

2016 CELEBRATION OF CARING • SUNDAY, APRIL 10
Award-winning actress and devoted social activist Marlee Matlin received worldwide critical acclaim for her film debut in Paramount Pictures’ Children of a Lesser God, for which she became the youngest recipient of the Best Actress Oscar, at age 21. Though Matlin lost her hearing when she was only 18 months old, she never let her challenges dictate her future or deter her dreams. Along with a successful Hollywood career, Matlin has dedicated herself to raising awareness for many humanitarian causes, including diversity and LGBT rights. She is a staunch advocate for children and a champion for those struggling against domestic abuse and addiction (battles she knows well). Matlin has also helped raise awareness for better hearing health for millions of deaf and hard of hearing children and adults in developing countries, in support of the Starkey Hearing Foundation. In 2015, in association with MEDL Mobile, Marlee created “Marlee Keyboard,” the first celebrity driven app teaching basics of American Sign Language on mobile devices and Apple platforms.

Currently, Matlin guest stars on the Peabody Award-winning ABC Family series Switched at Birth. She serves as a National Celebrity Spokesperson for The American Red Cross and the National Association for the Deaf. Matlin was also instrumental in getting federal legislation passed in support of Closed Captioning, both on broadcast television and broadband, as well as Text to 911 Emergency services.

Looking to the Past with Pride

Betty Brook was hired in 1951 as the first casework supervisor of the Jewish social service department of the Tucson Jewish Community Council, of which her husband Ben was the first professional executive.

Betty’s role evolved over the next 11 years until she was named Executive Director of what had become an agency with a separate board of directors known as Jewish Family Service. Her service from 1951 until her retirement in 1978 laid a foundation for the next 38 years of providing vital counseling and community services for the Jewish and broader Tucson communities.

We are celebrating what began as the Jewish Welfare Society in 1941 and became the Jewish Social Service Department of the Jewish Community Council in 1949. In 1959, the name changed to Jewish Family Service and in 1988, the agency’s name expanded to Jewish Family & Children’s Service.

The Jewish Welfare Society grew out of the Hebrew Ladies Benevolent Society of Tucson, which was founded in 1912.
In the January 8, 1999 edition of the Arizona Jewish Post, then assistant editor Phyllis Braun wrote an article about Benjamin and Betty Brook being honored by the community. In that article, Phyllis wrote, “Perhaps the key to Ben and Betty Brook’s distinguished reputation is this: while everyone speaks of them as the architects of Tucson’s Jewish Community, no one fails to mention their ongoing commitment to the broader community as well.

As executive director of the Tucson Jewish Community Council (forerunner of today’s Federation) from 1949-1978, Dr. Benjamin N. Brook helped to create many of the Jewish community’s vital agencies, including Jewish Family & Children’s Service, of which Elizabeth Brook was the first executive director . . .”

According to Stuart Mellan, President & CEO of the Jewish Federation of Southern Arizona, Benjamin Brook often said in his expansion of the famous Bar Mitzvah topic,

“If I am the fountain pen, Betty is the ink that animates, enables and sustains me.”

JFCS Holds Open House

Now it’s official! Over 200 people were on hand as Rabbi Tom Louchheim, Assistant Rabbi at Temple Emanu-El and a key Resettlement volunteer, nailed the mezuzah to the door of JFCS’s new home.

JFCS moved from it’s Broadway location last October and is now located at 1011 North Craycroft Road in Suite 404. The new phone number is 795-0300. The opening was held March 20th from 4:30 to 7:00 p.m. Many thanks to Caren Newman for chairing this event.

Community Services

Care management
Through SelectCare, we help seniors and the people who care for them 1) prioritize needs, 2) set up care plans, services and referrals, and 3) manage multiple providers.

Home medical equipment
We provide manual wheelchairs, walkers, canes, crutches, home safety equipment and other medical in-home use devices to people with a financial need through our HoME program.

Guardianship
We oversee and make decisions for medical, psychological, and all important lifestyle needs for clients with developmental disabilities.

Support for Holocaust Survivors
We provide case management, home care, financial assistance and social opportunities for Holocaust Survivors in Southern Arizona.

Jewish emergency financial aid
We help Jewish individuals and families in need with necessary expenses, including food cards, bus passes, and short term financial assistance to avoid eviction, utility shut off and more.

Jewish connections for seniors
Through Jewish Elder Access we connect Jewish seniors with the Jewish community in Pima County, home services, transportation, professional services and more.

Counseling Services

On-site counseling for people of all ages
We provide expert individual, group and family therapy in two locations (central, northwest) for people who are insured, under-insured, and uninsured.

Counseling for trauma and violence victims
As trauma specialists, we deliver expert therapeutic services for children and adults who are victims of abuse, domestic violence and other crimes.

Crisis counseling for first responders
We provide confidential, timely and affordable care for fire, police, dispatch and emergency medical service personnel, and their family members.

Counseling for domestic violence victims
We have two programs that offer intensive therapy and counseling for adults who are victims of domestic violence and other crimes. One program serves the whole community. Another program, LEAH, serves Jewish women and families affected by domestic violence. Both programs include education, advocacy, and information and referral.

Support for cancer survivors
We empower Jewish women through the CHAI Circle to be active and informed cancer survivors by providing education, mentoring, socialization, spirituality and support.

Off-site support services
Our clinical and community teams work together with schools, medical practices, synagogues and other nonprofits to bring services into the community.
Mazel Tov, JCFS, on your 75th year of serving all of Tucson.

We especially would like to honor the three pioneer families: Betty and Ben Brook, Irene and Jack Sarver, and Enid and Mel Zuckerman.

With their great vision and generosity, they changed the landscape of care forever.

We would especially like to thank all of you who continue to make this dream possible today.

Mazel Tov JFCS, on 75 years of service to our community.

your passion. your dreams. your legacy.

The Foundation partners with congregations and nonprofits.

We help congregations and nonprofits such as Jewish Family & Children’s Services grow charitable assets to meet current and future needs. Both Jewish and non-Jewish organizations have chosen to place their funds with the Foundation, thus gaining access to our administrative, endowment, and investment expertise. It’s a win-win partnership.

The Foundation serves individuals and families.

We make it easy for people to make charitable inspirations a reality, and to give their way, now and in the future. We can help you make a difference today and plan your legacy for tomorrow, working together with your professional advisors. Let us know how we can help.

Our Vision
We aspire to have a community in which all families and individuals are empowered, self-sufficient, capable of overcoming challenges, contribute to the community and feel respected and valued.

Our Mission
We are a nonprofit agency that provides quality social and behavioral health services to the Jewish and greater Tucson communities. We help people of all religious and ethnic origins meet their full potential by restoring their well-being, cultivating self-sufficiency and strengthening family life.

Values
We consistently strive to meet the needs of our clients while showing respect for their beliefs, choices, values and differences. We are guided by the Jewish traditions of healing the world (tikkun olam) with loving kindness (chesed) through just and charitable deeds (tzedakah).
